

Bryan L Hellard, President
True View Video LLC
Summary of Qualifications

Background

- 12 years' experience in the Telepresence industry
- Working relationship with several Telepresence related companies as a consultant
- Former Director of Product Development for Telesuite Corporation
- Managed products that have been deployed globally
- 23 years working use of AutoCAD

Research and Development

- Specified and tested products for potential use in systems
- Products include; cameras, projectors, audio gear, codecs, furniture systems and hardware, screens, displays, lighting systems and more
- Thorough projector shootouts between several vendors (NEC, Sharp, Sanyo, Epson, etc)
- Conceptualized future product ideas in AutoCAD
- Design and mocked up concepts for accurate testing protocol
- Determined placement of system components based on real world human factors
- Created testing protocol for equipment
- Set up testing environments

Design

- Conceptual design
- Created individual part drawings for manufacturing
- Created 3d product installation guides
- Created wiring and electronic diagrams
- Created 3d CAD models and renderings of proposed products

Prototyping

- Prototyped numerous products to test concepts

Customer Facility Management

- Performed on-site surveys of client facilities
- Directed surveyors across the globe
- Prepared room ready drawings specifying; required architectural changes, system placement, lighting relocation, HVAC and electrical relocation
- Worked with install crew to insure products were installed correctly
- Identified architectural related issues requiring customized products

Product Management

- Created/managed Bills of Materials for products with hundreds of individual parts
- Worked with install teams to streamline installation in the field
- Designed custom parts where customer site issues required them